

WAP (We Ask Permission)

Consent is:

- Clear, unambiguous words or actions
- Knowing and voluntary
- Given by all individuals involved
- Getting permission for every sexual act, every time
- Able to be withdrawn at any time

Consent is not:

- Silence or lack of resistance
- Going on a date, eating a meal, going to someone's room, or the clothes you're wearing
- A previous or current sexual or romantic relationship
- Forced, coerced, or received through intimidation
- Taking advantage of incapacitation

Try asking this way...

"How far do you want to go?"

"Can I go down on you?"

"Can I help you out of that?"

"Do you want to just cuddle?"

"How do you want it?"

"How does that feel?"

"Do you like that?"

"Is it okay if I touch you here?"

"Wanna try _____?"

"Do you want me to keep going?"

"Do you want me to stop?"

For more information and resources,
connect with P.A.T.H. here:

More sexy ways to ask for
consent can be found here:

WAP (We Ask Permission)

Consent is:

- Clear, unambiguous words or actions
- Knowing and voluntary
- Given by all individuals involved
- Getting permission for every sexual act, every time
- Able to be withdrawn at any time

Consent is not:

- Silence or lack of resistance
- Going on a date, eating a meal, going to someone's room, or the clothes you're wearing
- A previous or current sexual or romantic relationship
- Forced, coerced, or received through intimidation
- Taking advantage of incapacitation

C    NSENT
just ask.

For more information and resources,
connect with P.A.T.H. here:

PATH

.....

Prevention • Advocacy • Training • Healing

Try asking this way...

"How far do you want to go?"

"Can I go down on you?"

"Can I help you out of that?"

"Do you want to just cuddle?"

"How do you want it?"

"How does that feel?"

"Do you like that?"

"Is it okay if I touch you here?"

"Wanna try _____?"

"Do you want me to keep going?"

"Do you want me to stop?"

More sexy ways to ask for
consent can be found here:

